

Tun Yu School Notice
Cancelling all Face-to-Face Lessons

Dear parents/guardians,

13th January 2022

Under the guidelines from Education Bureau, the school will cancel all Face-to-Face lessons from 14th January 2022 (Friday), until the end of Lunar New Year holiday. Please see the details below:

1) Student's Learning Arrangements:

- The school will cancel all Face-to-Face lessons and school events from 14th January 2022 (Friday), all lessons will be changed to online teaching.
- All P.1 to P.6 students (all locals and Cross-Border students) will stay at home, and follow the timetable to take online classes from 14th January (Friday).
- The performance of student's attendance, lesson performance and homework submission will be counted to their final result.
- All absence (Without any reasons) and lateness will be counted as inappropriate behavior and disciplinary action will be taken. If student cannot attend school on the day, please inform the school based on the instructions on student's handbook. It is required to give a detailed reason and the date of absence.
- Parents are required to provide a quiet and undistracted environment for their child to study.
- Photo taking, filming, recording or sharing are prohibited unless there are further permission from teachers.
- Please dress tidy and clean when having lesson.
- Please enter student's name and class on the Zoom ID. (E.g. 1A Chan Tai Man)
- Please pay attention in class. Do not eat or drink in the lesson.
- All rules will be same as normal Face-to Face lessons.

2) School Arrangements:

- The school will remain open and all staffs will keep their duties at school. The opening time will be 8:15a.m.- 3:40 p.m.
- If parents require to send their child to school, please send a letter to the class teacher in advance. Student needs to prepare their lunch if they need to stay at school for whole day.
- All school buses and lunch service will be cancelled. Parents are required to pick up and prepare a lunch box for their child.

Please note that the announcements from Education Bureau shall prevail and our school will keep updating the information based on the new announcement.

For enquiries, please contact Mr. Lee at 24711915 (HL) or 14714303528 (Mainland) for further details.

Thank you for your attention.

Yours sincerely,

陳香軒

Chan Hang Hin
Principal of Tun Yu School